Gelana Abaya

Wachu Lalicha

Located in the northwest of Yirgacheffe, Gelana and Abaya are coffee producing districts within the Oromia region found between the Lake Abaya and Yirgacheffe's town.

This coffee was grown in the Wachu Lalicha village and processed in the Gelana Abaya washing station near the Kebele village. As the coffee plant was originated in East Africa, thousands of varieties have developed over time, but Ethiopian heirloom varieties stand out for their surprising fruity aromas and flavors.

The Cup: 87 pts.

Sweet apple, grape juice, fruit tart, malic acidity, tropical fruit, smooth.
